6th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A leper came to Jesus and kneeling down begged him and said, “If you wish, you can make me clean.” Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him,
“I do will it. Be made clean.” - Mk 1:40-41

On this sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time, the liturgy presents us with the healing of a leper. The Evangelist Mark retraces, in a very visual and dynamic way, the passage from feeling isolated and unclean, to allowing himself to be touched by Jesus, the Compassionate, to finally become a witness who creates community and bears witness with his own life. It is the process that we are called to go through as followers of Jesus!

This Sunday brings a pause to Ordinary Time and pushes us into Lent that will begin next Wednesday. May it be for believers, as was Christ's encounter with the leper, a time of personal growth in the faith and of commitment to become even more involved in the Church from which we receive the faith, and with which we want to continue to spread it.

REMEMBER THE CHRISTMAS HOLIDAY???

Shame on Us! This notice should have appeared in the bulletin long before February 11th!

SLK Parish is extremely grateful to all those who worked to prepare our church for Christmas. All the individuals who physically prepared the nativity scene, and placed the trees and flowers and characters, and all those who contributed money for the decorations and flowers. It is with everyone's help that our church was so beautiful. Thank you all!

Be assured that those persons and situations that were written on donation envelopes have been included in our prayers.

Once again—THANK YOU SO VERY MUCH!

En este sexto domingo del Tiempo Ordinario la liturgia nos presenta la curación de un leproso. El evangelista Marcos recorre, de una forma muy visual y dinámica, el paso de sentirse aislado e impuro, a dejarse tocar por Jesús, el Compasivo, para convertirse finalmente en testigo que crea comunidad y da testimonio con la propia vida. ¡Es el proceso que estamos llamados a recorrer los seguidores de Jesús!

Este domingo trae una pausa al Tiempo Ordinario y nos empuja a la Cuaresma que comenzará el próximo miércoles. Que sea para los creyentes, como fue el encuentro de Cristo con el leproso, tiempo de crecimiento personal en la fe y de compromiso por implicarnos aún más en la Iglesia de la que recibimos la fe, y con la que queremos seguir contagiándola.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Recently I had a skin rash, and it was awful. (Please don't tell anyone.) I am embarrassed to admit that I didn't handle it well. Complaining, whining, begging for sympathy, and crying were my responses to the merciless itching and burning. In the aftermath, a silver lining emerged. I feel a new heartfelt sympathy for all those vexed with chronic skin problems. If you've ever had a seemingly unending skin problem, you know how that sympathy flows up from deep inside.

This gut-level compassion is something like what the Gospel describes in Jesus when the sore-covered leper says, "If you will it, you can make me clean." At this, just before the healing, Jesus was "moved with compassion." The Greek word used here is strong and earthy, closer to "his bowels and guts trembled with the deepest emotions of sadness, pity, and love." In Jesus, God heals our infirmities not from a divine distance but by learning what it feels like to be us. He acquires first-hand experience of what it costs us to be afflicted and still be faithful to God. He sympathizes with the burning, itching, and blistering of human existence in the deepest, first-hand way. To discover that is to touch Jesus' heart.

What in your life, right now, is breaking out like diseased skin? What is getting worse the more you try to soothe it? Perhaps only you feel it. Or maybe it's exposed to all. A bad habit, broken relationship, loneliness, fear of failure, self-hatred? Name it, and then find a way to bring it confidently to Jesus who will feel what we are feeling, and thereby heal us.

— Father John Muir
