28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves,
“Then who can be saved?” Jesus looked at them and said,
“For human beings it is impossible, but not for God.
All things are possible for God.” - Mk 10:26-27

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Today's Gospel is an account of Jesus' encounter with a man of good will and punctual fulfillment of his religious duties, but whose heart was kept in the grip of riches for a generous and detached attitude. He is not the ideal follower of Jesus' disciples, as Jesus' disciples should be. It is an opportunity for Jesus to warn of the danger of riches and to inculcate in the hearts of all detachment and generosity, especially as a basic attitude for following Jesus. Detachment from the goods and cares of this life is the moral attitude required by those who wish to follow Jesus.

The Gospel text is built on a situation: to ask about the inheritance of eternal life. He does not seek to succeed in this world, nor to be part of the elect, nor to belong to a religious elite..., but to possess eternal life. The young man's concern and what he wants to know is to gain eternal life. Jesus' answer is that an attitude of compassion towards others is needed, support in remedying their needs and not having the heart attached to temporal goods, in addition to fulfilling the other commandments, of course. Only in this way can we follow Jesus and live in the kingdom of God. The young man failed to detach himself from earthly goods.

REFLEXIÓN EVANGÉLICA

El evangelio de hoy es un relato del encuentro de Jesús con un hombre de buena voluntad y puntual cumplimiento de sus deberes religiosos, pero cuyo corazón las riquezas le mantenían atenazado para una actitud generosa y desprendida. No es el seguidor ideal de los discípulos de Jesús, como deberían ser los discípulos de Jesús. Ocasión al dedo para que Jesús advierta del peligro de las riquezas e inculque en el corazón de todos el desprendimiento y la generosidad, sobre todo como actitud básica para el seguimiento de Jesús. El desprendimiento de los bienes y afanes de esta vida es la actitud moral requerida por quien desea seguir a Jesús.

El texto evangélico está construido sobre una situación: interrogar sobre la herencia de la vida eterna. No busca tener éxito en este mundo, ni formar parte de los elegidos, ni pertenecer a una élite religiosa..., sino poseer la vida eterna. La inquietud del joven y lo que desea saber es conseguir la vida eterna. La respuesta de Jesús es que se necesita actitud de compasión hacia los demás, apoyo en remediar sus necesidades y no tener el corazón apegado a los bienes temporales, además de cumplir los restantes mandamientos, por supuesto. Sólo así se sigue a Jesús y se vive en el reino de Dios. El joven fallaba en el desprendimiento de los bienes terrenos.

Possessions

When I was a kid, before smartphones and Amazon, it was the toy catalogs that we waited for.

They arrived in the mail, smiling children’s faces splashed across the cover, like a silent promise that real happiness could be purchased within these magical pages. We fought over who got to look at them first. We imagined playtime with this Barbie or that EasyBake Oven.

Without realizing it, we expected that these toys — and the fun they would create out of thin air, the excitement they would inject into our days — would give us new lives. Make us new people.

The toys we did get were fun enough, but they never made us new people. They never gave us new lives. And before long they broke or needed new batteries. They lost their allure, and they went to the attic. And then, many years later, when we got married or moved houses, we found them, and we sighed — more junk to get rid of.

It’s the same now, thirty years later, as much as I hate to admit it. The catalogs have become social media, and the toys have become promotions or pay raises or home improvement projects. I scroll through the feed and my mind lights up. What if we had this? What if we could buy that? What if we could go there?

The rich young man was not sad as he walked away from Jesus because he was losing his riches. He was sad because he wasn’t — because he couldn’t. He couldn’t give them up. Such is the dark magic of materialism: it takes hold when you’re not looking. He thought he was being a good person and doing good things. But he had given his heart away, and he hadn’t given it to God. And now he couldn’t get it back.

Whatever of this world we seek to possess — dollars, cars, clothes, prestige — will come to possess us, in the end.
